Dear Bruce

Having travelled all the way to Sydney to present my concerns to you, I consider it is reasonable to request by 31 March, 2018, a full and proper written response to “The Lance Christie Story” enclosed.

Much as I appreciate the immensity of your workload, I am shocked to find that other heartfelt written letters to yourself, including my ‘Statement to BDH’ have been totally and utterly ignored. I can only conclude that you have rejected these appeals.

My ‘Statement to BDH’ was sent to you via your brothers, Stephen and Daniel Hales, one year ago when I was in fellowship (copy attached). I have never received any acknowledgement at all, let alone a response.

I would appreciate a written response addressed to myself, c/o Stephen McVey (stephen.mcvey@gordonsllp.com) by the end of March. I trust that you understand the sincerity of my concerns, Bruce, and I am actually extending an opportunity for you to ‘come good’.

Yours very sincerely

Your friend
Lance Christie
