Subject: Fwd: EVEN MORE Serious Communication with Garth Christie from his older brother Lance which merits a respectful explanation

Brother Garth

I am now fully aware that the PBCC shunning and withdrawal mechanism that's carried out prior to excommunication is a sham subterfuge done to camouflage the fact that excommunication coincides with and is done simultaneously with the removal from me and others of all the benefits of the trusts created by the brethren by virtue of the protection of the NSW Stewards Foundation of Christian Brethren Act, 1989

This gave you control over Weavabel

This non provision for past members is created by the PBCC administrative processes and is recognised by the NSW Law Reform office as being created for Assemblies such as the PBCC Assembly which is "styled" after the Open Brethren's "Foundation".

The Hales acolyte, former leader of the Open Brethren (now Stewards Foundation of Christian Brethren) and now Property Manager, Mr Philip Weldon, was absolutely beside himself in the NSW Parliament on 5th June 2024 where he was robustly accusing Mr Ray Carter, an ordinary NSW citizen, of repealing his Act, repeat HIS Act and saying that he alone governed who can use the Act. This is exactly what Rev Hon Fred Nile MLC was clearly seeking to conceal as per the record of the "debate" of the bill in the NSW parliament right back in 1989 soon after JHS had died

My family assume that some deity of one form or another exists in Bruce Hales and yourself. Jed is consequently bringing me to court without really knowing why he's doing it. I regard you as hostile to my life and devoid of brotherly love. Meanwhile, Bruce Hales presents himself as being untouchable with his security, whether it be legal, physical or moral but he's actually weak in the sight of God.

You cared not for my soul but only for the money that I could contribute to your system which I did without a second thought. I am fighting for my rights now because I believe that Bruce Hales used tortious interference in the marriage between Deborah and I to protect the dogma of the PBCC by rebuking me, shutting me up, excommunicating me and separating from me which caused the alienation of the affection of my wife towards me. That coercive interference ended in me being excommunicated by the various mechanisms of the PBCC. You, commandeered by your proxy to Bruce Hales and my wife took my business, my home, my social circle, my children, my grandchildren, my business premises and everything I'd devoted my life to creating. You made me out to be dangerous but I'm still a Christian so I have to question your own Christianity.

Your game is almost up Garth and my possible imprisonment will not bring you any joy just as I will not receive any joy when I have to sue my son, wife and yourself because you all concealed from me that when I was excommunicated, I unknowingly simultaneously lost legal control of my rights at Weavabel. This is why the NSW Law Reform office couched their acknowledgement that there is no provision under the Act for past members of the Assemblies as being "no specific provision". This explains why, back then, you threw me a few tit bits to soften the blow, realising that you needed to finish me off.

Bruce Hales's game is also almost up, Garth, and it is now high time that the PBCC returned to the love of Jesus Christ which is precisely what motivates me in what I do.

Very faithfully

Your brother, Lance
