Garth,

See attached

I've already sent the LV8 elevation programme into at least twelve brethren businesses owners including Caleb Hall and Neville Simmons suggesting that, even if I'm not worthy to be in your religion, I can travel around large businesses and help them to take the control of the business out of the Hales's hands and back into the control of the staff and owning family

That will be so much safer for all, including the employees and prevent the same happening to others as has happened to me

I could perhaps start with Hazel 4d and Havwoods. See what Oliver says and give him my regards

The fact is that when I was told that all the managers would move out of the Weavabel business if I were to establish my rights and move back in, that was confirmation that you and my PBCC employees were prepared to damage my family business.

That thwarted me from taking up my legal rights that were established in the build up to the divorce and splitting of my assets with Deborah

As I conveyed to you three days ago, I've been aiming for reconciliation ever since you and later the Leeds brethren turned against me in 2013

PLEASE consider your current situation very carefully and weigh up the happy consequences of joining me in my quest for brotherly and fatherly reconciliation
Then let me know where you stand

In Him
Lance J Christie
