Garth and Neil,

THE PBCC DO NOT CONSIDER IT EXPEDIENT TO ALLOW RECONCILIATION WITH THOSE THEY'VE ALREADY CAST OUT

If you both study the small print behind the New South Wales Stewards' Foundation of Christian Brethren Act, 1989 (link) it becomes clear why you and the PBCC never reconcile with people you put through the wringer like dad, mum and me.

It's because there's too much money involved in putting things right! Little wonder OS and JSH said that there was an unhealable breach between dad and you and me and you and BDH said that there were irreconcilable differences between Deborah and me.

Where does that stand in relation to the cross of Christ?

No wonder Judge Cotter said in the Leeds courts "Lance wants reconciliation even if you don't."

If the hundreds and thousands of brethren that have been abused by the system exercised their right to come back (as per Revelation 22), that would likely break the financial coffers of the PBCC despite you being worth, as a whole, some £250 billion.

The only door now open to you, Garth and Neil, is that of repentance and turning to Christ.

My numerous letters to Bruce Hales (link) all point to this.

This is a further appeal in Christ.

From your brother and uncle

Lance J Christie
